Jung-Königswinter Conference 2004

 Preliminary programme

Location  Europäische Akademie, Berlin (EAB),
Bismarckallee 46/48
D-14193 Berlin
Tel.: +49 (0)30 - 89 59 51 -0

Date  20.-25. August 2004

TOPICS

1. From state responsibility and ownership to privatisation: What can our citizens still expect from the state?
2. Will international terrorism be the threat to our countries’ and to worldwide stability and security, and how does it effect us?
3. Can Europe become a real and equitable partner for the United States?
4. The Globalization of Culture and Society

Friday, August 20th

21:55  Arrival at BerlinTegel
22:30  Meeting point: BerlinTegel - Bus parking place

Saturday, August 21st

08:00  Breakfast
09:00 – 10:30  Opening of the conference by Gebhardt von Moltke, Chairman of the Deutsch-Britische Gesellschaft and Sir Nigel Broomfield

Speakers

Prof. Dr. Kiran Klaus Patel, Junior Professor for modern and contemporary history, Humboldt University
Jeremy Creswell, Deputy Head of Mission, British Embassy – to be confirmed

10:30  Coffee Break
11:00 – 12:30 Introductions to the study group topics by selected participants
- Group 1: Simone Grimmeisen, Jennefer Holmes
- Group 2: Duncan Crossey, Nicolaus Frhr von der Goltz
- Group 3: Anke Marei Ludwig, James Stevens
- Group 4: Gwendolyn Carpenter, Tobias Denkus

12:30 Lunch at EAB

14:00 – 15:30 Study group sessions begin.
Selection of Chairperson and Rapporteur

15:30 Coffee break

16:00 – 17:30 Study group sessions

18:00 Dinner at the EAB

Evening off

Sunday, August 22nd

08:00 Breakfast

09:00 – 10:30 Continuation of study groups

10:30 Coffee/Tea

11:00 – 12:30 Continuation of study groups

12:30 Lunch at EAB

14:00 Transfer to Würth-Haus Berlin, Inselstraße 16, 14129 Berlin

15:00 – 21:00 Afternoon at the Würth Haus, Schwanenwerder
Concert
Lecture
Dinner

21:00 – 21:30 Transfer to EAB

Monday, August 23rd

08:00 Breakfast

09:00 Continuation of study groups
Discussion

10:15 Transfer to Schering AG, Müllerstr. 178, 13353 Berlin
11:00 Dr. Mathias Gottwald, Head of Communication, Schering AG
Presentation
13:00 Lunch at Schering
14:00 Transfer to EAB
14:45 – 16:00 Continuation of study groups
16:00 Coffee break
16:30 – 18:00 Continuation of study groups
19:15 Walk to the Residence of the Deputy Head of Mission, Jeremy Creswell, Taubertstr. 13, 14193 Berlin
19:30 Buffet dinner hosted by the the Deputy Head of Mission, Jeremy Creswell

Tuesday, August 24th
08:00 Breakfast
09:00 – 10:30 Karsten Voigt
Coordinator of German-American Cooperation, Auswärtiges Amt (Foreign Office)
10:30 – 10:45 Coffee Break
10:45 – 12:00 Continuation of study groups
12:00 – 12:45 Transfer to Auswärtiges Amt, K05, Werderscher Markt 1, 10117 Berlin
13:00 Lunch at Auswärtiges Amt, K05
13:45 – 15:00 Presentation at Auswärtiges Amt
(Department of Communication K05); NN
15:00 – 16:30 City tour by bus
16:30 – 18:45 Time off
18:45 Boat trip through the historical centre of Berlin on the ‘Captain Cook’ with buffet, Friedrichstr., am Tränenpalast
Boat will leave at 19:00 sharp
21:15 Transfer to EAB
Wednesday, August 25th

08:00  Breakfast and check-out
09:00  Preparation of study group reports
10:30  Coffee/Tea
11:00  End of Conference with reports from the four study groups
       1. From state responsibility and ownership to privatisation: What can our citizens still expect from the state?
       2. Will international terrorism be the threat to our countries’ and to worldwide stability and security, and how does it effect us?
       3. Can Europe become a real and equitable partner for the United States?
       4. The Globalization of Culture and Society
12:30  Lunch at EAB
13:30 – 14:00  Wrap-up
              Feedback
14:15  Transfer to the airport
16:35  Flight back to London

We would like to thank the following sponsors for their kind support:
- Deka Bank
- Schering AG
- Auswärtiges Amt (Abteilung Kommunikation)
- Bundeszentrale für politische Bildung bpb
- Anglo-German Foundation

15.07.2004